

Ocean City Yacht
Club Boatyard Storage Agreement and Understanding

The boatyard is available to store sailboats only. Sailboat trailers can be stored for a fee in the boatyard with the approval of the Boatyard Manager and the Rear Commodore.

Summer Storage Period – Start date May 15th End date November 14th

Winter Storage Period – Start Date November 15th End date May 14th

Payment:

Storage fee must be paid in full before the start of the storage season. If you plan on storing your boat in the yard for the entire year, please pay accordingly.

Boat Removal:

If you do not intend to store your boat in the yard for the winter season, please be sure to remove your boat before November 14th.

Limits of Liability:

Ocean City Yacht Club makes no warranty as to the suitability of the boatyard or related services, including physical security, water, electricity and launch service. Ocean City Yacht Club and its officers, members, and employees, will not be liable for the theft of or any damage to the owner's boat, boat dolly, trailer, or other property while stored in the Boat Yard. It is the boat owner's sole responsibility to ensure that the boat and equipment are secured safely and in a manner that does not cause damage to the vessel, other vessels, OCYC property and club. The owner will be responsible for any damages.

Non-Payment:

The owner of any vessel or trailer stored on the Club property will be responsible for payment of storage fees. Should any member be delinquent for more than 2 storage seasons (1 year) the vessel or trailer will be forfeited and monies or vessel will be donated to the clubs sailing programs. The club will make every effort to contact the owner before taking any action.
